(4) The Commissioner General's requirement shall be in writing and served on the person specifying the period, part of a period or other events to be covered by the tax return and the date by which the return shall be filed.

Assistance in preparing tax return

38.-(1) A person who prepares a tax return or an attachment to a tax return on behalf of another person shall sign the return or an attachment certifying that-

- (a) the person has examined the relevant documents of that other person maintained under this Act; and
- (b) to his knowledge, the return or attachment presents a true and fair view of the circumstances to which it relates.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to an employee of the person obliged to file the tax return.

(3) Where a person who prepared a tax return or an attachment under subsection (1) is not satisfied with the information contained in the documents relevant for the preparation of the return or an attachment, the person shall furnish that other person with a statement in writing stating the reasons for his dissatisfaction and proceed to sign the return noting that the signature is subject to such a statement.

Extension of time to file tax return

39.-(1) A person who is required to file a tax return under a tax law may apply to the Commissioner General for an extension of the time by which the return shall be filed.

(2) The application under subsection (1) shall be in writing and be made within fifteen days before the due date for filing the return.

(3) Upon the receipt of an application made under subsection (1), the Commissioner General-

(a) may extend the time upon which the return has to be filed;

(b) shall serve the person with written notice of his decision on the application.

(4) The extension of time to file a return shall not exceed thirty days from the due date of filing the return.

(5) The granting of an extension of time under this section shall not alter the date for payment of tax as specified in the tax law under which the return is filed.

Failure to file tax return on time

40.-(1) Where a person fails to file a tax return by the due date stated by a tax law or as may be extended under section 39, the Commissioner General may use the power under this Act to appoint another person to prepare and file information.

(2) Any purported filing of a tax return after the due date or in a manner other than that specified in the relevant tax law shall be ineffective.

(3) The Commissioner General shall, make an assessment of the tax liability of the person as required by the tax law, including by way of adjusted assessment, and for this purpose may use any information in the Commissioner General's possession including any information obtained under subsection (1) or (2).

Correction of tax returns and other information

41.-(1) Where the Commissioner General is not satisfied with a tax return filed under a tax law, he shall use appropriate powers, including those in Subpart (c) of this Part for acquiring further information as is necessary in the issuance of an assessment.

(2) A tax return which has been filed shall not be amended or corrected unless as specified under the relevant tax law.

(3) The Commissioner General may, in making an assessment or adjusted assessment, take into account any information received under subsection (1).

(c) Access to Information and Assets

42.-(1) The Commissioner General shall, without a prior notice, be granted free access to any premises, documents, goods, vessels, vehicles, aircrafts or any other assets-

(a) in the case of a dwelling house or where a document or asset is located in a dwelling house-

(i) between 9:00am and 6:00pm; and

(ii) at other times as permitted by an order of a court;

(b) in any other case, at any time.

(2) The powers of the Commissioner General stipulated under subsection (1) may be delegated to a tax officer.

(3) When exercising the power under subsection (1), the Commissioner General or tax officer may-

- (a) make an extract or copy of any document to which access is obtained;
- (b) seize any document which affords evidence that-
 - (i) may be material in determining the tax liability of any person; or
 - (ii) an offence has been committed under a tax law;
- (c) seize an asset to which access is obtained that contains or stores the document in any form;
- (d) where a document is not available or a copy is not provided on request by a person having access to the document, seize an asset to which access is obtained under subsection (1) that the Commissioner General or tax officer reasonably suspects contains or stores the document in any form;
- (e) take samples of goods; and
- (f) park, moor or store, at any premises or place, any vehicle, aircraft, vessel or other equipment in use by the Commissioner General or a tax officer.

(4) Any document, asset or sample seized under subsection (3), shall be issued with an inventory of seized properties signed by the Commissioner General or the tax officer and may be-

- (a) in the case of seized document retained for a period required for the determination of the person's tax liability or for any proceedings under a tax law;
- (b) in the case of seized asset retained for as long as is necessary to obtain access to the document; or
- (c) in the case of samples, retained and disposed of in the manner directed by the Commissioner General.

(5) An authorised officer exercising power under this section may be assisted and accompanied by any employee of the Authority, expert appointed under section 18 or public officer required to assist under section 19.

Possessor's rights and obligations

43.-(1) A person who possesses any premise, place, document, goods, equipment, vessel, vehicle, aircraft or asset to which a tax officer seeks or has obtained access under this Part may require the tax officer to produce the authorisation.

(2) Where the tax officer fails to comply with a request under subsection (1), the person may refuse the officer an access or require the tax officer to leave the premises or place to which the tax officer has obtained access on that occasion.

(3) A person who possesses any premise, document, good, vessel, vehicle, aircraft or asset to which an exercise of powers under this Part refers, shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective exercise of the powers under this section.

(4) Where a person fails to comply with subsection (3), the tax officer shall exercise the powers stipulated under section 63 and apply for search warrant under section 94.

(5) A person who owns documents or assets retained pursuant to this Part may, at his own expenses, examine the documents and make copies or extracts of documents during regular office hours under the supervision as the Commissioner General may determine.

(6) Where a document, asset or sample is lost or damaged as the result of exercising the powers under this Act, the Commissioner General shall pay the owner of the document, asset or sample a reasonable compensation.

Notice to obtain
information

44.-(1) The Commissioner General may, by a notice in writing, require a person who is not liable for tax-

- (a) to produce any information prescribed in the notice;
- (b) to attend at the time and place stated in the notice for the purposes of being examined by the Commissioner General or by an officer authorised by the Commissioner General; or
- (c) to produce any document in his control during the examination.

(2) Any person to be examined under subsection (1)(b) is entitled to representation.

(3) A notice under subsection (1) shall be served by hand to the person to whom it is directed or leaving it at the person's usual place of business or abode, or by any other means as the Commissioner General may determine.

Tax audit or investigation

45.-(1) The Commissioner General may use powers conferred on him under this Act, to audit or investigate a person's tax affairs.

(2) The Commissioner General may select a person to be audited having regard to-

- (a) that person's history of compliance or non-compliance with any tax law;
- (b) the amount of tax payable by that person;
- (c) the class of business or other activity conducted by that person; or
- (d) any other matter that the Commissioner General considers relevant for ensuring the collection of tax due.

(3) Where a person has been audited or investigated for any particular period, such audit or investigation shall not preclude that person from being audited or investigated in the following period if there are reasonable grounds for auditing or investigating that person.

(4) The audit or investigation may be conducted for the purpose of more than one tax law.

PART VI

PRIMARY TAX LIABILITY

Assessment and self-assessment

46.-(1) An assessment of tax shall be made by way of self-assessment where a person liable to pay tax is obliged to file a tax return.

(2) A person other than the Commissioner General shall not adjust any assessment.

Jeopardy
assessment

47.-(1) The Commissioner General may make a jeopardy assessment of tax payable or has become payable by a person under the respective tax law-

(a) whether or not the person is required to file a tax return, in the circumstances specified in section 40(3); and

(b) in any other case, where a person fails to file a tax return on time.

(2) The Commissioner General shall use best judgment and available information in making a jeopardy assessment.

(3) A jeopardy assessment may be valid for such period or periods or with respect to such events or subject matter as the Commissioner General may specify in the notice of assessment.

(4) A jeopardy assessment shall not, unless the Commissioner General specifies otherwise in the notice of assessment, relieve a person of the obligation to file a tax return or report a taxable event as required by a tax law.

(5) The filing of tax return, shall not affect a jeopardy assessment.

(6) Where a jeopardy assessment covers the period or events covered by a self-assessment of a person with respect to the same tax, any tax paid with respect to the jeopardy assessment shall be credited against tax payable with respect to the self-assessment.

(7) A jeopardy assessment shall be deemed to be made under the tax law which charges the person or subject matter assessed.

Adjusted
assessment

48.-(1) The Commissioner General may adjust an assessment to ensure the taxpayer is liable for the correct amount of tax in the circumstances to which the assessment refers.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Commissioner General, a taxpayer has failed to pay any of the tax payable by him by reason of-

(a) his failure to keep proper books of accounts, records or document as required under a tax law, or the incorrectness of the books, records or documents; or

(b) his failure to make, or delay in making any return required under a tax law or the incorrectness or inadequacy of any return, the Commissioner General may assess the tax due and any interest payable on that tax both of which shall be due for payment within one month of the date of the assessment, unless a longer period is allowed by the Commissioner General.

(3) The Commissioner General shall use best judgment and available information in making an adjusted assessment.

(4) The powers of the Commissioner General to adjust an assessment expires five years from-

(a) in the case of a self-assessment, the due date for filing the tax return that gives rise to the assessment;

(b) in the case of any other original assessment, the date on which the Commissioner General serves notice of assessment on the taxpayer; and

(c) in the case of an adjusted assessment, the date referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of the original assessment that is adjusted.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), there shall be no time limit on the Commissioner General to adjust an assessment in the case of fraud, wilful neglect or serious omission by or on behalf of the taxpayer.

Cap. 408

(6) The Commissioner General shall not adjust an assessment that has been adjusted or reduced pursuant to a decision of the Board or Tribunal under the Tax Revenue Appeals Act or an order of the court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) An adjusted assessment shall cease to have effect to the extent to which it is adjusted.

(8) An adjusted assessment shall be deemed to be made under the tax law which charges the person or subject matter assessed.

(9) In this section, "original assessment" means an assessment that is not an adjusted assessment.

Notice of assessment

49.-(1) Where the Commissioner General makes an assessment under a tax law, he shall serve a written notice of the assessment on the taxpayer in a manner provided for under sections 33 and 34.

(2) In addition to anything prescribed by the respective tax law, a notice of assessment shall state-

(a) the name of the taxpayer and the Taxpayer Identification Number;

- (a) in the case of self-assessment, on the due date of filing the tax return;
 - (b) in the case of other assessments, when the notice of assessment is served on the taxpayer; and
 - (c) in the case of any other tax decision-
 - (i) where the tax law specifies a time by which the Commissioner General is to make the decision; or
 - (ii) when the Commissioner General serves the affected person with written notice of the decision.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, the following informations or documents shall be considered as conclusive evidence that a tax decision has been made and the decision is correct-
- (a) in the case of self-assessment, the tax return that causes the assessment or a document under the hand of the Commissioner General purporting to be a copy of the tax return;
 - (b) in the case of other assessments, the notice of assessment or a document under the hand of the Commissioner General purporting to be a copy of the notice; and
 - (c) in the case of any other tax decision, a written notice of the decision under the hand of the Commissioner General or a document under the hand of the Commissioner General purporting to be a memorandum of the decision.

Objection to tax decisions

51.-(1) A person who is aggrieved by a tax decision made by the Commissioner General, may object the decision by filing an objection to the Commissioner General, within thirty days from the date of service of the tax decision.

(2) A person who has reasonable ground to warrant extension of time to file an objection against a tax decision may apply for an extension of time.

(3) Where the Commissioner General is satisfied by the reason stated in the application made under subsection (2), he shall grant the extension of time and serve the notice of his decision to the applicant.

(4) An objection to a tax decision shall be in writing stating the grounds upon which it is made.

(5) An objection to any tax decision shall not be admitted unless the taxpayer has paid the amount of tax which is not in dispute or one third of the assessed tax whichever amount is greater.

(6) Where the Commissioner General is satisfied that there exist good reasons warranting reduction or waiver, he may waive the amount to be paid under subsection (5) or accept a lesser amount.

(7) Where a taxpayer files an objection and makes payment under subsection (5), the liability to pay the remaining assessed tax shall be suspended until the objection is finally determined.

(8) In this section, "tax not in dispute" with respect to an assessment or any tax decision means-

- (a) the amount that ought to be charged where the assessment or a tax decision is amended in accordance with the objection; and

- (b) the whole of duty or any tax assessed on imports.

Decisions on objection

52.-(1) The Commissioner General may, upon admission of an objection pursuant to section 51, make a decision by determining the objection or call for any evidence or any other information as may appear necessary for the determination of the objection and may, in that respects-

- (a) amend the assessment in accordance with the objection and any further evidence that has been received; or

- (b) refuse to amend the assessment.

(2) Where the Commissioner General agrees to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection, he shall serve a notice of the final assessment to the objector.

- (3) Where the Commissioner General-

- (a) intends to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection and any further evidence; or

- (b) decides to refuse to amend the assessment, he shall serve the objector with a notice setting out the reasons for the intention or decision.

(4) The objector shall, within thirty days from the receipt of the notice pursuant to subsection (3), make submission in writing to the Commissioner General on his agreement or disagreement with the amended assessment or the refusal.

(5) The Commissioner General may, after the receipt of the submissions by the objector made pursuant to subsection (4)-

- (a) determine the objection in the light of the amended assessment or refusal and any submission made by the objector; or
- (b) determine the objection partially in accordance with the submission by the objector.

Appeal against objection
Decisions
Cap. 408

53.-(1) A person who is aggrieved by an objection decision or other decision or omission of the Commissioner General under this Part may appeal to the Board in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Revenue Appeals Act.

(2) Subsection (1) shall also apply to a decision or omission made under the customs law.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the Board shall be deemed to be the Tax Appeals Tribunal established under section 231 of the East African Community Customs Management Act.

Act No. 1
of 2005

PART VIII

PAYMENT AND RECOVERY OF TAX

(a) Regular Payment of Tax

Time for paying tax

54.-(1) A taxpayer shall pay any tax-

- (a) at the time specified in the tax law under which the tax is charged;
- (b) in the case of tax payable-

- (i) on a jeopardy assessment under section 47, on the date specified in the notice of assessment served under section 49; or
- (ii) on an adjusted assessment under section 48, within thirty days from the date on which the person assessed is served with a notice of assessment under section 49;
- (c) in the case of interest and penalties under Part X, on the date specified in the notice of assessment served under section 81;
- (d) with respect to amount required to be paid to the Commissioner General under section 62(9), 68(2), 69(2) or (5), on the date set out in the notice;
- (e) with respect to a liability under section 65, at the time the tax is payable by the entity;
- (f) with respect to amounts required to be paid to the Commissioner General under section 67(3) or (4), seven days after the sale from which the amount is set aside or the failure to set aside, respectively; or
- (g) with respect to amount required to be paid to the Commissioner General under section 68(5), on the date provided for in the security.

Extension of time for paying tax

55.-(1) A taxpayer may, in writing, apply to the Commissioner General for an extension of time to pay tax under a tax law.

(2) The Commissioner General may, upon the receipt of the application and where good cause is shown, extend the date on which tax or part of tax shall be paid.

(3) The Commissioner General shall serve the applicant with written notice of the decision on the application.

(4) Where an extension is granted by permitting the taxpayer to pay tax by instalments and the taxpayer has defaulted in paying any of the instalments, the whole balance of the tax outstanding plus the interest shall become payable immediately.

Manner and place of paying tax

56.-(1) A taxpayer shall pay tax-

- (a) at any tax office;
- (b) at any bank approved for that purpose by the Commissioner General;
- (c) through a mobile phone payment system; or
- (d) in any other manner prescribed by the Commissioner General.

(2) Where a taxpayer pays tax in accordance with subsection (1), he shall notify the tax office where the taxpayer is registered of the payment.

(3) A taxpayer shall pay tax in one of the following forms-

- (a) where the payment is made at a tax office in cash; or
- (b) where the payment is made at a bank-
 - (i) in cash;
 - (ii) by cheque; or
 - (iii) by direct account transfer.

(4) The payment of tax shall be considered to be ineffective where the cheque tendered to the bank is dishonoured.

Order of paying tax

57. Where a taxpayer has tax payable under one or more tax laws and makes payment less than the total outstanding amount, the Commissioner General may, notwithstanding the system established under section 58, determine the amount of tax to be considered as the paid amount.

Taxpayer tax accounts

58.-(1) The Commissioner General may establish and operate an electronic system of taxpayer's account.

(2) The system may be established and operated separately or as part of the electronic document system established under section 34.

(3) For the better carrying out of the purpose of this section, the Commissioner General may make rules prescribing-

- (a) when the tax becomes payable;
- (b) the tax paid; and
- (c) other matters similar to matters described under section 34.

(b) Recovery of Tax from Taxpayer

Suit for unpaid tax

59. Where-

- (a) payment of any tax has not been made on or before the due date; or
- (b) a notice which has been served to any person under section 81 has not been complied with, the tax due and payable by such person may be recovered as a debt due to the Government in any proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction.

Security for withholding tax

60.-(1) Withholding tax, including any assets acquired by the withholding agent, may be traced from assets or amounts-

- (a) held in trust for the Government of the United Republic;
- (b) not the subject of attachment in respect of a debt or liability of the agent; and
- (c) not forming part of the estate in liquidation or bankruptcy proceedings of the agent.

(2) The Commissioner-General shall have a first claim over the tax or assets before any distribution in liquidation or bankruptcy of a withholding agent is made.

Charge over assets

61.-(1) Where a taxpayer fails to pay tax on time, the Commissioner General may create a charge in favour of the Government over assets owned by that taxpayer.

(2) The Commissioner General shall be considered to have created the charge if he serves the taxpayer with a notice in writing specifying the taxpayer's name and Taxpayer Identification Number, the assets charged, the extent of the charge, the tax to which the charge relates and details regarding the Commissioner General's power of sale under section 62.

(3) The assets of a taxpayer shall be charged to the extent of the unpaid tax, interest accruing with respect to that tax under section 76 and any costs of charge and sale.

(4) A charge created under subsection (2) shall not have effect until-

(a) where an interest in land or buildings is charged, the Commissioner General files an application to register the charge under subsection (6); and

(b) in any other case, the notice creating the charge is served on the taxpayer.

(5) A charge shall be released when the taxpayer pays in full the amounts referred under subsection (3) to the Commissioner General.

(6) Where the Commissioner General creates a charge over an interest in land or buildings, the Registrar of Titles shall, without fee, register the charge on the title of the interest in land or buildings.

(7) Where a charge over an interest in land or buildings is released, the Registrar of Titles shall, within thirty days and without fee, remove the entry of the charge from the title of the interest in land or buildings.

(8) Any transaction by the Commissioner General under this section shall be exempted from stamp duty and any other transaction taxes.

(9) The Commissioner General may serve on a taxpayer a notice in writing-

(a) specifying any costs of charge and sale with respect to assets of the taxpayer incurred by the Commissioner General

(2) A notice served under section 67 shall cease to have effect once the tax referred to is paid or otherwise satisfied.

(3) Where a third party debtor who is served with a notice under section 67 is unable to comply with the notice by reason of lack of money owing to, or held for the taxpayer, such third party debtor shall notify the Commissioner General on his inability to pay.

- (4) The notice under subsection (3) shall be-
 - (a) in writing setting out the reasons for the inability;

(b) filed with the Commissioner General within seven days from the notice issued under section 67 after the third party debtor becomes aware of the inability.

(5) The Commissioner General may, upon the receipt of a notice by a third party debtor, accept the notification and cancel or amend the notice under section 67 or reject the notice of the third party debtor.

(6) The notice filed by a third party debtor under this section shall have no effect unless the Commissioner General cancels or amends the third party debtor notice issued under section 67.

(7) Where a third party debtor fails to pay an amount of tax specified in a notice within 30 days of the date-

(a) of service of such notice in him; or

(b) on which any money comes into his hands or becomes due by him to, his tax debtor whichever event is the latter and the payer has-

(i) not given a notification under subsection 3 of this section; or

(ii) given such notification which has been rejected by the Commissioner General, the provisions of this Act relating to recovery of tax shall apply to the collection and recovery of such amount as if it were tax due and payable by the third party debtor, the due date for the payment of which was the date upon which such amount should have been paid to the Commissioner General under this section.

Agents of non-residents

69.-(1) Where-

- (a) a non-resident taxpayer fails to pay tax on time; or
- (b) the Commissioner General has good reasons to believe that a non-resident taxpayer shall not pay tax on time, the Commissioner General may, by notice in writing, require the agent who is in possession of an asset owned by the non-resident taxpayer to pay tax on behalf of that taxpayer.

(2) An agent shall, without prejudice to subsection (1), be required to pay tax up to the market value of the asset but not exceeding the amount of the taxpayer's unpaid tax.

(3) For the purposes of this section-

- (a) a taxpayer who charters an aircraft or ship under a charter for period exceeding three years shall be treated as the owner of the aircraft or ship during that period; and
- (b) the captain of any aircraft or ship shall be treated as being in possession of the aircraft or ship.

(4) The Commissioner General may, by notice in writing, require a resident partnership or a resident partner to pay tax due or that may become due by a non-resident partner.

(5) The resident partnership and any resident partner shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the tax up to the amount of the non-resident partner's share in the net assets of the partnership.

(6) Where a person makes payment to the Commissioner General pursuant to a notice issued under subsection (1) or (4) that-

- (a) person may recover the payment from the taxpayer or non-resident partner;
- (b) person may for the purposes of paragraph (a), retain out of any assets of the taxpayer or non-resident partner in or coming into the possession of the person an amount not exceeding the payment; and
- (c) taxpayer, non-resident partner or any other person, may not make a claim against the person with respect to the retention.

PART IX

REMISSION AND REFUND OF TAX

Remission

70. Where the Commissioner General is satisfied that there is good cause to remit penalty or interest imposed under any tax law, he may remit the whole or part of the penalty or interest payable by that person.

Application
for tax refund

71.-(1) A person may apply to the Commissioner General for refund of tax paid in excess.

(2) The application for refund shall be in writing, indicating the correct tax calculation and be supported by the documentary evidence to support the claim.

Decision on application

72.-(1) The Commissioner General shall consider and make a refund decision on an application made under section 71 within ninety days from the date of the receipt of the application.

(2) The Commissioner General may make the appropriate decision without limiting his discretion-

- (a) where he is of the opinion that the applicant has not paid excess tax, reject the application;
- (b) where he is not satisfied that the applicant has paid excess tax-
 - (i) request for further information as may be reasonable in order to make a final decision on the application; or
 - (ii) refund the money paid in the excess subject to the application; or
- (c) where he is satisfied that the applicant has paid excess tax, to refund to the extent to which the Commissioner General is satisfied.

(3) The Commissioner General shall serve the applicant with a written notice of the refund decision within the time prescribed in subsection (1).

(4) Where the Commissioner General makes a decision under subsection (2)(b), the Commissioner General shall reconsider the application after the applicant provides the information or where the applicant rejects the offer.

(5) The Commissioner General shall serve the applicant with notice of that decision within thirty days of receiving the information requested under subsection (2).

Payment of tax refund

73.-(1) Where the Commissioner General is satisfied that the taxpayer has paid excess tax, he shall-

- (a) apply the excess to offset any tax due from the taxpayer under any tax law; and
- (b) refund the balance, within fourteen days of making the decision.

(2) Where the Commissioner General accepts a taxpayer's refund application in part, he shall refund the amount accepted.

(3) Where the Commissioner General refunds an amount of tax to a person, he shall be liable to pay that person an interest in accordance with the provisions of the relevant tax law.

(4) The interest under this section shall be calculated at the statutory rate and shall be for the period commencing on the date the refund decision is issued and ending on the day the refund is made.

(5) The interest paid by a person under a tax law with respect to tax which has not been paid on time shall, to the extent that the tax is found to have been paid, be refunded to that person with any interest at the rate stipulated under subsection (4).

(6) The Commissioner General shall maintain a separate bank account and ensure that there are sufficient funds that account for the purposes of this section.

Short levy or erroneous

74.-(1) Where any duty has been shortlevied or erroneously refunded, a person who ought to have paid the amount short-levied or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, shall, on demand by the Commissioner General, pay the amount short-levied under section 39 or 55 or suspension under section 51(7) shall not be taken in consideration.

Cap. 332 (3) This section applies where an instalment payer's estimate or revised estimate of income tax payable for a year of income under section 88 of the Income Tax Act is less than eighty percent of the correct amount.

Cap. 332 (4) Where this section applies, the instalment payer shall be liable for interest for each month or part of a month from the date the first instalment for the year of income is payable until the due date by which the person shall file a return of income for the year of income under section 91(1) of the Income Tax Act.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "correct amount" means the income tax payable by the payer for the year of income under section 4(1)(a) and (b) of the Income Tax Act.

Interest for failing to pay tax

76.-(1) Where any amount of tax imposed under a tax law remains unpaid after the due date prescribed in a tax law or its regulations, the interest at the statutory rate shall be payable to the Commissioner General on the amount for the time being due and unpaid.

(2) For the purposes of calculating interest payable under subsection (1), any extension granted under section 39 or 55 or suspension under section 51(7) shall not be applied.

- (4) Where the Commissioner General compounds an offence under this section, a person whose offence is compounded shall not be liable for prosecution for that offence.

PART XI TAX PROCEEDINGS

Multiple proceedings

93.-(1) The proceedings to recover tax or prosecution of a person under one provision of a tax law does not restrict simultaneous or separate proceedings to recover the same tax or to prosecute a person under a different provision of that law or a provision of a different tax law.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of tax law, a person may be convicted or fined for more than one offence with respect to same course of conduct or omission.

(3) Where two or more provisions which create an offence apply to the same part of a course of conduct or omission of a person, the adjudicator may choose under which provision the person is to be convicted or fined.

Power of search, seizure and arrest

94.-(1) A tax officer authorised to search, seize or arrest may apply to a magistrate for an order to arrest a person.

(2) The application under subsection (1), shall state the reasons which make an authorised tax officer to believe that a person-

- (a) has committed an offence under a tax law;
- (b) will abscond before the person is charged or stands trial for an offence under a tax law;
- (c) will destroy, tamper or otherwise dispose of evidence of an offence under a tax law; or
- (d) has in possession any good to which any offence under a tax law has been committed or full duty has not been paid as required by a tax law.

(3) The magistrate may, after being satisfied that the situation represents a serious risk to the collection of tax or the administration of justice, make an order authorising the tax officer, to be accompanied by the police officer, to-

- (a) enter any premises or place and restrain assets that may reasonably provide evidence that an offence has been committed under a tax law;

(c) set out the terms for release, including any as to security required, and terms for disposal of any assets seized.

(6) A tax officer arresting a person shall immediately take that person to the nearest police station.

(7) A person shall be searched by another person of the same sex.

(8) A tax officer may exercise any of the powers granted by a magistrate under this section in conjunction with any other of his powers granted under this Act.

Search
without warrant

95.-(1) An authorised officer may, without a warrant, exercise the powers referred under section 94 where-

(a) the owner or person in control of the premises consented in writing; or

(b) he is on reasonable grounds satisfied that-

(i) there may be an imminent removal or destruction of relevant material likely to be found on the premises;

(ii) the delay in obtaining a warrant would defeat the object of the search and seizure.
