Service of pleading on parties to suit

2.—(1) Where any pleading is presented to the court, the party presenting the pleading shall—

- (a) in the case of plaint, present to the court such additional number of copies of the plaint as there may be defendants to enable the court to serve a copy of the plaint on each of the defendants; and
- (b) in the case of any other pleading—
 - (i) prior to the presentation of the pleading, serve or cause to be served on each of the other parties to the suit a copy of such pleading; or

(2) A party to a suit shall be deemed to have been served with a copy of a pleading under the provisions of subparagraph (b) of subrule (1) where such copy is served on the person who has entered appearance on behalf of such party or on his advocate.

Pleading to state material facts and not evidence

3. Every pleading shall contain, and contain only, a statement in a concise form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence but not the evidence by which they are to be proved, and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively, and dates, sums and numbers may be expressed in figures.

Particulars to be given where necessary

4. In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud, breach of trust, willful default, or undue influence and in all other case in which particulars may be necessary to substantiate any allegation, such particulars, with dates and items if necessary, shall be stated in the pleading.

Further and better statements or particulars

5. A further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading may, in all cases, be ordered, upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise as may be just.

Departure

7. A pleading shall not, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

Denial of contract

8. Where a contract is alleged in any pleading, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract alleged or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract.

Effect of document to be stated

9. Wherever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

Malice, knowledge, etc.

10. Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

Notice

Implied contract or relation

12. Wherever any contract or any relation between any person is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversation or circumstances without setting them out in detail, and if in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstance, he may state the same in the alternative.

Presumption of law

13. Neither party need in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied, e.g. consideration from a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim.

- Pleading to be signed 14. Every pleading shall be signed by the party and his advocate, if any, provided that, where a party pleading is, by reason of absence or for other good cause, unable to sign the pleading, it may be signed by any person duly authorised by him to sign the same or to sue or defend on his behalf.
- Verification of pleadings 15.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, every pleading shall be verified at the foot by the party or by one of the parties in the pleading or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the court to be acquainted with the facts of the case.
(2) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verified upon information received and believed to be true.
(3) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.
- Striking out pleading 16. The court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order to be struck out or amended any matter in any pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the suit.
- Amendment of pleading 17. The court may at any stage of the proceedings allow either party to alter or amend his pleading in such manner and on such terms as may be just, and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy between the parties.
- Failure to amend after order 18. Where a party who has obtained an order for leave to amend does not amend accordingly within the time limited for that purpose by the order, or if no time is thereby limited then within fourteen days from the date of the order, he shall not be permitted to amend after the expiration of such limited time as aforesaid or of such fourteen days unless the time is extended by the court.

Every plaintiff shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims either simply or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief which may always be given as the court may think just to the same extent as if it had been asked for, and this rule shall apply to any relief claimed by the defendant in his written statement.

Provided that, where a plaint does not disclose a cause of action or where the suit appears from the statement in plaint to be barred by any law and the court is satisfied that if the plaintiff is permitted to amend the plaint, the plaint will disclose a cause of action or the suit will cease to appear from the plaint to be barred by any law, the court may allow the plaintiff to amend the plaint subject to such conditions as to costs or otherwise as the court may deem fit to impose.

Procedure on rejecting plaint

12. Where a plaint is rejected, the judge or magistrate shall record an order to that effect with the reasons for such order.

Where rejection of plaint does

Where the suit is founded upon a negotiable instrument and it is proved that the instrument is lost and an indemnity is given by the plaintiff, to the satisfaction of the court, against the claims of any other person upon such instrument, the court may pass such decree as it would have passed if the plaintiff had produced the instrument in court when the plaint was presented, and had, at the same time, delivered a copy of the instrument to be filed with the plaint.

Production of shop book and original entry to be marked and returned
Cap. 6

17.—(1) Save in so far as is otherwise provided by the Evidence Act, where the document on which the plaintiff sues is an entry in a shop book or other account in his possession or power, the plaintiff shall produce the book or account at the time of filing the plaint, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies.

(2) The court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf, shall forthwith mark the document for the purpose of identification, and, after examining and comparing the copy with the original shall, if it is found correct, certify it to be so and return the book to the plaintiff and cause the copy to be filed.

Inadmissibility of document not produced when plaint filed

18.—(1) A document which ought to be produced in court by the plaintiff when the plaint is presented, or to be entered in the list to be added or annexed to the plaint, and which is not produced or entered accordingly, shall not, without the leave of the court, be received in evidence on his behalf at the hearing of the suit.

(2) The provisions of rule 1 of Order VII shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect to filing a written statement of defence.

(3) The court may, on application by the defendant before the expiry of the period provided for filing a written statement of defence or within seven days after expiry of that period and upon the defendant showing good cause for failure to file such written statement of defence, extend time within which the defence has to be filed for another ten days and the ruling to that effect shall be delivered within twenty one days.

(4) The extended ten days under subrule (3) shall be counted from the date of the order of the court for extension of time.

New facts and preliminary objections must be specifically pleaded
GN. No.
381 of 2019

2. The defendant must raise by his pleading all matters which show the suit not be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence as, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the plaint, as, for instance, fraud, limitation, release, payment, performance, or facts showing illegality.

Denial to be specific

3. It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his written statement to deny generally the grounds alleged by the plaintiff, but the defendant must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he does not admit the truth, except damages.

⁴ Amended by GN. No. 381 of 2019

Evasive denial 4. Where a defendant denies an allegation of fact in the plaint, he must not do so evasively, but answer the point of substance, thus, if it is alleged that he received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he received that particular amount, but he must deny that he received that sum or any part thereof or else set out how much he received, and if an allegation is made with diverse circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

Specific denial 5. Every allegation of fact in the plaint, if not denied specifically or by necessary implication, or stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the defendant, shall be taken to be admitted except as against a person under disability:

Provided that, the court may in its discretion, require any fact so admitted to be proved otherwise than by such admission.

Particulars of set-off to be given in written statement and effect of set-off GNs. Nos.
376 of 1968
422 of 1994

6.-(1) Where in a suit for the recovery of money the defendant claims to set-off against the plaintiff's demand any ascertained sum of money legally recoverable by him from the plaintiff, not exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the court, and both parties fill the same character as they fill in the plaintiff's suit, the defendant may, within period of twenty-one days of being served with the summons, present a written statement containing the particulars of the debt sought to be set-off:

Provided that, a written statement shall not contain particulars of-

- (a) any debt, where the suit is brought for the recovery of taxes, duties or penalties;
- (b) a debt arising out of a right or claim to repayment in respect of any taxes, duties or penalties.

(2) The written statement shall have the same effect as a plaint in a cross-suit so as to enable the court to pronounce a final judgment in respect of both the original claim and the set-off; but this shall not affect the lien, upon the amount decreed, of any advocate in respect of the costs payable to him under the decree.

(3) The rule relating to a written statement by a defendant shall apply to a written statement in answer to a claim of set-off.

Defence of set-off founded on separate grounds

Provided that, a written statement of defence shall not state-

- (a) any particulars of claim where the suit is brought for the recovery of taxes, duties or penalties;
- (b) particulars of any claim to repayment in respect of any taxes, duties or penalties.

(2) Where a counterclaim is set-up in a written statement of defence, the counterclaim shall be treated as a cross-suit and the written statement shall have the same effect as a plaint in a cross-suit, and the provisions of Order VII shall apply mutatis mutandis to such written statement as if it were a plaint.

Counterclaim against plaintiff and third party

10.-(1) Where a defendant, by a written statement, sets up any counterclaim which raises questions between himself and the plaintiff along with another person, whether or not a party to the suit, he may join that person as a party against whom the counterclaim is made.

(2) Where a defendant joins a person as party against whom a counterclaim is made he shall add to the title of the written statement of defence a further title similar to the title in a plaint setting forth the name of such person and a copy of such written statement of defence together with a notice requiring such person, should he wish to defend the defendant's counterclaim, to file his written reply in answer to the claim within the period specified in rule 11 shall be served on him as if such notice were summons and such counterclaim were a plaint.

Subsequent pleadings
GN. No.
422 of 1994

13. A pleading subsequent to the written statement of a defendant other than by way of defence to a set-off or counterclaim shall not be presented except by the leave of the court and upon such terms as the court thinks fit, but the court may at a pre-trial conference require a written statement or additional written statement from any of the parties and fix a time for presenting the same:

Provided that, where a defendant has presented a written statement of defence in accordance with a summons to file a defence the plaintiff may, without obtaining leave of the court, present a reply to the written statement of defence within seven days after the written statement of defence or,

(2) In considering whether to set aside or vary the order for the default judgment under this rule, the court shall consider whether the aggrieved party has—

- (a) applied to the court within the period specified under subrule (1); and
- (b) given good cause for failing to file a written statement of defence.

(3) Where a judgment is set aside, the order shall be effective upon the aggrieved party or judgment debtor filing and serving a written statement of defence within the period specified by the court.

pleadings are admitted or denied

1. At the first hearing of the suit, the court shall ascertain from each party or his advocate whether he admits or denies such allegations of facts as are made in the plaint or written statement, if any, of the opposite party, and as are not expressly or by necessary implication admitted or denied by the party against whom they are made and the court shall record such admissions and denials.

Substance of examination to be written

3. The substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing by the judge or magistrate and shall form part of the record.

Consequence of refusal or inability of advocate to answer

4.-(1) Where the advocate of any party who appears by an advocate or any such person accompanying an advocate as is referred to in rule 2 refuses or is unable to answer any material question relating to the suit which the court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall appear in person on such day.

(2) Where such party fails without lawful excuse to appear in person on the day so appointed, the court may pronounce judgment against him or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit.

ORDER XI DISCOVERY AND INSPECTION

Discovery by interrogatories

1. In any suit the plaintiff or defendant, by leave of the court, may deliver interrogatories in writing for the examination of the opposite parties or any one or more of such parties, and such interrogatories when delivered shall have a note at the foot thereof stating which of such interrogatories each of such persons is required to answer:

Provided that, no party shall deliver more than one set of interrogatories to the same party without an order for that purpose:

Provided further that, interrogatories which do not relate to any matters in question in the suit shall be deemed irrelevant, notwithstanding that they might be admissible on the oral cross-examination of a witness.

Particular interrogatories to be submitted

2. On an application for leave to deliver interrogatories, the particular interrogatories proposed to be delivered shall be submitted to the court and in deciding upon such application, the court shall take into account any offer which may be made by the party sought to be interrogated to deliver particulars, or to make admission, or to produce documents relating to the matters in question, or any of them, and leave shall be given as to such only of the interrogatories submitted as the court shall consider necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

Costs of
interrogatories

3. In adjusting the costs of the suit, inquiry shall, at the instance of any party, be made into the propriety of exhibiting such interrogatories, and if it is the opinion of the taxing officer or of the court, either with or without an application for inquiry, that such interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the cost occasioned by the said interrogatories and the answer thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

Interrogatories
relating to corporations

4. Where any party to a suit is a corporation or a body of persons, whether incorporated or not, empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of any officer or other person, any opposite party may apply for an order allowing him to deliver interrogatories to any member or officer of such corporation or body, and an order may be made accordingly.

Objections to interrogatories by answer

5. Any objection to answering any interrogatory on the ground that it is scandalous or irrelevant or not exhibited bona fide for the purpose of the suit, or that the matters inquired into are not sufficiently material at that stage, or on any other grounds, may be taken in the affidavit in answer.

Setting aside and striking out
interrogatories

6. Any interrogatories may be set aside on the ground that they have been exhibited unreasonably or vexatiously, or struck out on the ground that they are prolix, oppressive, unnecessary or scandalous; and any application for this purpose may be made within seven days after service of the interrogatories.

Filing of affidavit in answer

7. Interrogatories shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within ten days or within such other time as the court may allow.

No exception to be taken

Order to answer or answer further
GN. No.

9. Where any person interrogated omits to answer, or answers insufficiently, the party interrogating may apply to the court for an order requiring him to answer, or to answer further and an order may be made requiring him to answer or answer further, either by affidavit or by viva voce examination, as the court may direct:

Provided that, no order shall be made requiring a person to answer or answer further where any enactment or rule of law authorises or requires the refusal to answer any question on the ground that the answering of the question would be injurious to the public interest.

Application for discovery of documents
GN. No.
376 of 1968

10. Any party may, without filing any affidavit, apply to the court for an order directing any other party to any suit to make discovery on oath of documents which are or have been in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question therein and on the hearing of such application the court may either refuse or adjourn the same, if satisfied that such discovery is not necessary, or not necessary at the stage of the suit, or make such order, either generally or limited to certain classes of documents, as may, in its discretion, be thought fit:

Provided that, discovery shall not be ordered when and so far as the court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs:

Provided further that, discovery shall not be ordered where there is produced to the court a certificate under the hand of a Minister that, in his opinion, discovery, either generally or in relation to a certain document or a certain class of documents, would be injurious to the public interest.

Affidavit of documents

11. The affidavit to be made by a party against whom such order as is mentioned in rule 10 has been made, shall specify which, if any, of the documents therein mentioned he objects to produce.

Production of documents
GN. No.

12. It shall be lawful for the court, at any time during the pendency of any suit to order the production, by any party thereto upon oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question in such suit, as the court shall think right, and the court may deal with such documents when produced, in such manner as shall appear just:

Provided that, production shall not be ordered of a document where any enactment or rule of law authorises or requires the withholding of the document on the ground that the disclosure of the document would be injurious to the public interest.

Inspection of documents referred to in pleadings or affidavits

13. Every party to a suit shall be entitled at any time to give notice to any other party in whose pleadings or affidavits reference is made to any document, to produce such document for the inspection of the party giving such notice or his advocate, and to permit him or them to take copies thereof, and any party not complying with such notice shall not afterwards be at liberty to put any such document in evidence on his behalf in such suit unless he shall satisfy the court that such document relates only to his own title, he being a defendant to the suit or that he had some other cause or excuse which the court shall deem sufficient for not complying with such notice, in which case the court may allow the same to be put in evidence on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the court shall think fit.

Time for inspection when notice given

14. The party to whom such notice is given shall, within ten days from the receipt of such notice, deliver to the party giving the same a notice stating a time within three days from the delivery thereof at which the documents, or such of them as he does not object to produce, may be inspected at the office of his advocate, or in the case of banker's books or other books of account or books in constant use for the purpose of any trade or business, at their usual place of custody, and stating which, if any, of the documents he objects to produce, and on what ground.

Order for inspection
GN. No.
376 of 1968

15.—(1) Where the party served with notice under rule 14 omits to give such notice of a time for inspection or objects to give inspection or offers inspection elsewhere than at the office of his advocate the court may, on the application of the party desiring it, make an order for inspection in such place and in such manner as it may think fit:

Provided that, the order shall not be made when and so far as the court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

(2) An application to inspect documents, except such as are referred to in the pleadings, particulars or affidavits of the party against whom the application is made or disclosed in his affidavits of documents, shall be founded upon an affidavit showing of what documents inspection is sought, that the party applying is entitled to inspect them and that they are in the possession or power of the other party, the court shall not make such order for inspection of such documents when and so far as the court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, an order for inspection of documents shall not be made where there is produced to the court a certificate under the hand of a Minister that in his opinion, inspection would be injurious to the public interest.

Verified copies
GN. No.
376 of 1968

16.—(1) Where inspection of any business books is applied for, the court may, if it thinks fit, instead of ordering inspection of the original books, order a copy of any entries therein to be furnished and verified by the affidavit of some person who has examined the copy with the original entries, and such affidavit shall state whether or not there are in the original book any and what erasures, interlineations or alterations:

Provided that, notwithstanding that such copy has been supplied, the court may order inspection of the book from which the copy was made.

(2) Where on an application for an order for inspection privilege is claimed for any document, it shall be lawful for the court to inspect the document for the purpose of deciding as to the validity of the claim of privilege.

(3) The court may, on the application of any party to a suit at any time, and whether an affidavit of documents shall or shall not have already been ordered or made, make an order requiring any other party, other than the Attorney General to state by affidavit whether any one or more specific documents, to be specified in the application, is or are, or has or have at any time been in his possession or power, and, if not then in his possession when he parted with the same and what has become thereof.

(4) An application made under subrule (3) shall be made on an affidavit stating that in the belief of the deponent the party against whom the application is made has, or has at some time had, in his possession or power the document or documents specified in the application and that they relate to the matters in question in the suit or to some of them.

Premature
discovery

17. Where the party from whom discovery of any kind or inspection is sought objects to the same or any part thereof the court may, if satisfied that the right to the discovery or inspection sought depends on the determination of any issue or question in dispute in the suit, or that for any other reason it is desirable that any issue or question in dispute in the suit should be determined before deciding upon the right to the discovery or inspection, order that such issue or question be determined, first, and reserve the question as to the discovery or inspection.

Non-compliance with order for discovery

18. Where any party fails to comply with any order to answer interrogatories or for discovery or inspection of documents, he shall, if a plaintiff, be liable to have his suit dismissed for want of prosecution and if a defendant, to have his defence, if any, struck out, and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended, and the party interrogating or seeking discovery or inspection may apply to the court for an order to that effect and an order may be made accordingly.

Using answers to interrogatories at trial

19. A party may, at the trial of a suit, use in evidence any one or more of the answers or any part of an answer of the opposite party to interrogatories without putting in the others or the whole of such answer:

Provided that, in such case the court may look at the whole of the answers and, if it shall be of opinion that any others of them are so connected with those put in that the last-mentioned answers ought not to be used without them, it may direct them to be put in.

Application of order to minors

20. This Order shall apply to minor plaintiffs and defendants, and to the next friends and guardians for the suit of persons under disability.

ORDER XII ADMISSIONS

Notice of admission of case

1. Any party to a suit may give notice, by his pleading or otherwise in writing, that he admits the truth of the whole or any part of the case of any other party.

Notice to admit documents

2. Either party may call upon the other party to admit any document, saving all just exceptions, and in case of refusal or neglect to admit after such notice, the costs of proving any such documents shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the court otherwise directs and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice is given except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the court, a saving of expense.

Notice to admit facts

3. Any party may, by notice in writing, at any time not later than nine days before the day fixed for the hearing, call on any other party to admit, for the purposes of the suit only, any specific fact or facts mentioned in such notice, and in case of refusal or neglect to admit the same within six days after service for such notice, or within such further time as may be allowed by the court, the costs of proving such fact or facts shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the court otherwise directs:

Provided that, any admission made in pursuance of such notice is to be deemed to be made only for the purposes of the particular suit, and not as an admission to be used against the party on any other occasion or in favour of any person other than the party giving the notice:

Provided further that, the court may at any time allow any party to amend or withdraw any admission so made on such terms as may be just.

Judgment on admissions

4. Any party may at any stage of a suit, where admissions of fact have been made either on the pleading, or otherwise, apply to the court for such judgment or order as upon such admissions he may be entitled to, without waiting for determination of any other question between the parties; and the court may upon such application make such order, or give such judgment, as the court may think just.

Affidavit of signature

5. An affidavit of the advocate or his clerk, of the due signature of any admission made in pursuance of any notice to admit documents or facts, shall be sufficient evidence of such admission, if evidence thereof is required.

Evidence of notice to produce documents

6. An affidavit of the advocate or his clerk, of the service of any notice to produce and of the time when it was served, with a copy of the notice to produce, shall in all cases be sufficient evidence of the service of the notice and of the time when it was served.

Costs

7. Where a notice under rule 6 is a notice to admit or produce specified documents which are not necessary, the costs occasioned thereby shall be borne by the party giving such notice.

ORDER XIII

Effect of non-production of documents

2. Documentary evidence in the possession or power of any party which should have been, but has not been produced in accordance with the requirements of rule 1 shall not be received at any subsequent stage of the proceedings unless good cause is shown to the satisfaction of the court for the non-production thereof, and the court receiving any such evidence shall record the reasons for so doing.

Endorsements
on copies of admitted entries in books, accounts and records
Cap. 6

5.—(1) Save in so far as is otherwise provided by the Evidence Act, where a document admitted in evidence in the suit is an entry in a letter-book or a shop-book or other account in current use, the party on whose behalf the book or account is produced may furnish a copy of the entry.

(2) Where such a document is an entry in a public record produced from a public office or by a public officer, or an entry in a book or account belonging to a person other than a party on whose behalf the book or account is produced, the court may require a copy of the entry to be furnished-

- (a) where the record, book or account is produced on behalf of a party, then by that party; or
- (b) where the record, book or account is produced in obedience to an order of the court acting of its own motion, then by either or any party.

(3) Where a copy of an entry is furnished under the provisions of this rule, the court shall, after causing the copy to be examined, compared and certified in manner mentioned in rule 17 of Order VII, mark the entry and cause the book, account or record in which it occurs to be returned to the person producing it.

Endorsements

inadmissible in evidence

6. Where a document relied on as evidence by either party is considered by the court to be inadmissible in evidence, there shall be endorsed thereon the particulars mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of subrule (1) of rule 4 together with a statement of its having been rejected, and the endorsement shall be signed or initialed by the judge or magistrate.

Recording

return of rejected
documents

7.-(1) Every document which has been admitted in evidence, or a copy thereof where a copy has been substituted for the original under rule 5, shall form part of the record of the suit.

(2) Documents not admitted in evidence shall not form part of the record and shall be returned to the persons respectively producing them.

Court may order any document to be impounded

8. Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 5 or rule 7 of this Order or in rule 17 of Order VII, the court may, if it sees sufficient cause, direct any document or book produced before it in any suit to be impounded and kept in the custody of an officer of the court for such period and subject to such conditions as the court thinks fit.

Return of admitted
documents

9.-(1) Any person whether a party to the suit or not, desirous of receiving back any document produced by him in the suit and placed on the record shall, unless the document is impounded under rule 8, be entitled to receive back the same-

- (a) where the suit is one in which an appeal is not allowed, when the suit has been disposed of; or
- (b) where the suit is one in which an appeal is allowed, when the court is satisfied that the time for preferring an appeal has elapsed and that no appeal has been preferred or, if an appeal has been preferred, when the appeal has been disposed of:

Provided that, a document may be returned at any time earlier than that prescribed by this rule if the person applying therefor delivers to the proper officer a certified copy to be substituted for the original and undertakes to produce the original if required to do so:

Provided further that, no document shall be returned which, by force of the decree, has become wholly void or useless.

(2) On the return of a document admitted in evidence, a receipt shall be given by the person receiving it.

Court may send for papers from its own records or from other courts

10.—(1) The court may, on its own motion, and may in its discretion upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other court, the record of any other suit or proceeding, and inspect the same.

(2) Every application made under this rule shall, unless the court otherwise directs be supported by an affidavit showing how the record is material to the suit in which the application is made, and that the applicant cannot without unreasonable delay or expense obtain a duly authenticated copy of the record or of such portion thereof as the applicant requires, or that the production of the original is necessary for the purposes of justice.

(3) This rule shall not be deemed to enable the court to use in evidence any document which under the law of evidence would be inadmissible in the suit.

Provisions as to documents also applicable to material objects

11. The provisions herein contained as to documents shall, as far as may be, apply to all other material objects producible as evidence.

ORDER XIV

SETTLEMENT OF ISSUES AND DETERMINATION OF SUITS ON ISSUES OF LAW OR ON ISSUES AGREED UPON

Framing of issues

1.—(1) Issues arise when a material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by one party and denied by the other.

(2) Material propositions are those propositions of law or fact which plaintiff must allege in order to show a right to sue or a defendant must allege in order to constitute his defence.

(3) Each material proposition affirmed by one party and denied by the other shall form the subject of a distinct issue.

(4) Issues are of two kinds—

- (a) issues of fact; and
- (b) issues of law.

(5) At the first hearing of the suit the court shall, after reading the plaint and the written statements, if any, and after such examination of the parties as may appear necessary, ascertain upon what material proposition of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues on which the right decision of the case appears to depend.

(6) This rule shall not be construed as to require the court to frame and record issues where the defendant at the first hearing of the suit makes no defence.

Issues of law and of fact

2. Where issues both of law and of fact arise in the same suit, and the court is of opinion that the case or any part thereof may be disposed of on the issues of law only, it shall try those issues first, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, postpone the settlement of the issues of fact until after the issues of law have been determined.

Materials from which issues may be framed

3. The court may frame the issues from all or any of the following materials:

- (a) allegations made on oath by the parties, or by any person present on their behalf, or made by the advocates of such parties;
- (b) allegations made in the pleadings or in answers to interrogatories delivered in the suit;
- (c) the contents of documents produced by either party.

Court may examine witnesses or documents before framing issues

4. Where the court is of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person not before the court or without the inspection of some document not produced in the suit, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, and may, subject to any law for the time being in force, compel the attendance of any person or the production of any document by the person in whose possession or power it is, by summons or other process.

Power to amend and strike out issues

5.-(1) The court may at any time before passing a decree, amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as it thinks fit, and all such amendments or additional issues as may be necessary for determining the matters in controversy between the parties shall be so made or framed.

(2) The court may also, at any time before passing a decree, strike out any issues that appear to it to be wrongly framed or introduced.

Questions of fact or law may by agreement be stated in form of issues

6. Where the parties to a suit are agreed as to the question of fact or of law to be decided between them, they may state the same in the form of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing that, upon finding of the court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue-

- (a) a sum of money specified in the agreement or to be ascertained by the court, or in such manner as the court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that one of them shall be declared entitled to some right or subject to some liability specified in the agreement;
- (b) some property specified in the agreement and in dispute in the suit shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or as that other may direct; or
- (c) one or more of the parties shall do or abstain from doing some particular act specified in the agreement and relating to the matter in dispute.

Court, if satisfied that agreement was executed
in good faith, may pronounce judgment

7. Where the court is satisfied, after making such inquiry as it deems proper-

- (a) that the agreement was duly executed by the parties;
- (b) that they have a substantial interest in the decision of such question as aforesaid; and
- (c) that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it shall proceed to record and try the issue and state its finding or decision thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by court and shall, upon the finding or decision on such issue, pronounce judgment according to the terms of the agreement, and, upon the judgment so pronounced, a decree shall follow.

ORDER XV

DISPOSAL OF THE SUIT AT FIRST HEARING

Parties not at issue

1. Where at the first hearing of a suit it appears that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or of fact, the court may at once pronounce judgment.

One of several defendants not at issue

37.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in these Rules, where an application is for the execution of a decree for the payment of money by the arrest and detention as a civil prisoner of a judgment debtor who is liable to be arrested in pursuance of the application, the court may, instead of issuing a warrant for his arrest, issue a notice calling upon him to appear before the court on a day to be specified in the notice and show cause why he should not be committed to prison.

(2) Where appearance is not made in obedience to the notice, the court shall, if the decree-holder so requires, issue a warrant for the arrest of the judgment debtor.

[r. 35]

Warrant for arrest to direct judgment debtor
to be brought up

38. Every warrant for the arrest of a judgment debtor shall direct the officer entrusted with its execution to bring him before the court with all convenient speed, unless the amount which he has been ordered to pay, together with the interest thereon and the costs, if any, to which he is liable, be sooner paid.

[r. 36]

Request for arrest
by telegram

39.—(1) A court which has issued a warrant for the arrest of a judgment debtor may, by telegram, request any district court within the area of whose jurisdiction the judgment debtor is believed to be, to arrest him and cause him to be taken under escort to the court which issued the warrant.

(2) A telegram sent under the provisions of subrule (1) shall state—

- (a) the number and title of the case;
- (b) the full name of the judgment debtor and the place where he is believed to be;
- (c) the amount of money upon payment of which the judgment debtor may be released;
- (d) that the person applying for arrest has given security for the expenses and the transport of the judgment debtor and his escort to the court which issued the warrant; and
- (e) the date when the warrant of arrest was issued.

(3) On receipt of a telegram sent in accordance with the provisions of this rule, the court to which it is addressed shall issue a provisional warrant in accordance with the particulars contained in the telegram and shall cause the same to be executed.

[r. 37]

Subsistence allowance

40.—(1) A judgment debtor shall not be arrested in execution of a decree unless and until the decree-holder pays into court such sum as the judge or magistrate thinks sufficient for the subsistence of the judgment debtor from the time of his arrest until he can be brought before the court.

(2) Where a judgment debtor is committed to prison in execution of a decree, the court shall fix for his subsistence such monthly allowance as he may be entitled to according to the scales fixed under section 51 or, where no such scales have been fixed, as it considers sufficient with reference to the class to which he belongs.

(3) The monthly allowance fixed by the court shall be supplied by the party on whose application the judgment debtor has been arrested by monthly payments in advance before the first day of each month.

(4) The first payment shall be made to the proper officer of the court for such portion of the current month as remains unexpired before the judgment debtor is committed to civil prison, and the subsequent payments, if any, shall be made to the officer in charge of the prison.

(5) Sums disbursed by the decree-holder for the subsistence of the judgment debtor in prison shall be deemed to be costs in the suit:

Provided that, the judgment debtor shall not be detained in prison or arrested on account of any sum so disbursed.

[r. 38]

Proceedings on appearance of judgment debtor
in obedience to notice or after arrest

41.—(1) Where a judgment debtor appears before the court in obedience to a notice issued under rule 37, or is brought before the court after being arrested in execution of a decree for the payment of money and it appears to the court that the judgment debtor is unable from poverty or other sufficient cause to pay the amount of the decree or, if that amount is a payable by installment, the amount of any installment thereof, the court may, upon such terms, if any, as it thinks fit, make an order disallowing the application for his arrest and detention, or directing his release.

(2) Before making an order under subrule (1), the court may take into consideration any allegation of the decree-holder touching any of the following matters:

- (a) the decree being for a sum for which the judgment debtor was bound in any fiduciary capacity to account;
- (b) the transfer, concealment or removal by the judgment debtor of any part of his property after the date of the institution of the suit in which the decree was passed, or the commission by him after that date of any other act of bad faith in relation to his property, with the object or effect of obstructing or delaying the decree-holder in the execution of the decree;
- (c) any undue preference given by the judgment debtor to any of his other creditors;
- (d) refusal or neglect on the part of the judgment debtor to pay the amount of the decree or some part thereof when he has, or since the date of the decree has had, the means of paying it;
- (e) the likelihood of the judgment debtor absconding or leaving the jurisdiction of the court with the object or effect of obstructing or delaying the decree-holder in the execution of the decree.

(3) While any of the matters mentioned in subrule (2) are being considered, the court may, in its discretion, order the judgment debtor to be detained as a civil prisoner or leave him in the custody of an officer of the court, or release him on his furnishing security, to the satisfaction of the court, for his appearance when required by the court.

(4) A judgment debtor released under this rule may be re-arrested.

(5) Where the court does not make an order under subrule (1), it shall cause the judgment debtor to be arrested if he has not already been arrested and, subject to the other provisions of this Code, commit him to prison.

[r. 39]

Attachment of Property

Examination of judgment debtor as to his property

42. Where a decree is for the payment of money the decree-holder may apply to the court for an order that-

- (a) the judgment debtor;
- (b) in the case of a corporation, any officer thereof; or
- (c) any other person, be orally examined as to whether any or what debts are owing to the judgment debtor and whether the judgment debtor has any and what other property or means of satisfying the decree, and the court may make an order for the attendance and examination of such judgment debtor, or officer or other person, and for the production of any books or documents.

[r. 40]

Attachment in case of decree for rent or mesne profits or other matter, amount of which to be subsequently determined

43. Where a decree directs an inquiry as to rent or mesne profits or any other matter, the property of the judgement debtor may, before the amount due from him has been ascertained, be attached as in the case of an ordinary decree for the payment of money.

[r. 41]

Attachment of movable property, other than agricultural produce, in possession of judgment debtor

44. Where the property to be attached is movable property, other than agricultural produce, in the possession of the judgment debtor, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof:

Provided that, when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once.

[r. 42]

Attachment of agricultural produce

45. Where the property to be attached is agricultural produce, the attachment shall be made by affixing a copy of the warrant of attachment-

- (a) where such produce is a growing crop, on the land on which such crop has grown; or
- (b) where such produce has been cut or gathered, on the place in which it is deposited, and another copy on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house in which the judgment debtor ordinarily resides or, with the leave of the court, on the outer door or on some other conspicuous part of the house in which he carries on business or personally works for gain or in which he is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain, and the produce shall thereupon be deemed to have passed into the possession of the court.

[r. 43]

Provisions as to agricultural produce under attachment

46.-(1) Where agricultural produce is attached, the court shall make such arrangements for the custody thereof as it may deem sufficient and, for the purposes of enabling the court to make such arrangements, every application for the attachment of a growing crop shall specify the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the court in this behalf either in the order of attachment or in any subsequent order, the judgment debtor may tend, cut, gather and store the produce and do any other act necessary for maturing or preserving it, and if the judgment debtor fails to do all or any of such acts the decree-holder may, with the permission of the court and subject to the like conditions, do all or any of them either by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, and the costs incurred by the decree-holder shall be recoverable from the judgment debtor as if they were included in, or formed part of, the decree.

(3) Agricultural produce attached as a growing crop shall not be deemed to have ceased to be under attachment or to require re-attachment merely because it has been severed from the soil.

(4) Where an order for the attachment of a growing crop has been made at a considerable time before the crop is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered, the court may suspend the execution of the order for such time as it thinks fit, and may, in its discretion, make a further order prohibiting the removal of the crop pending the execution of the order of attachment.

(5) A growing crop which from its nature does not admit of being stored shall not be attached under this rule at any time less than twenty days before the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

[r. 44]

debt, share and other property
not in possession of judgment debtor

47.—(1) In the case of—

- (a) a debt not secured by a negotiable instrument;
- (b) a share in the capital of a corporation;
- (c) other movable property not in the possession of the judgment debtor, except property deposited in, or in the custody of, any court, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting—

- (i) in the case of the debt, the creditor from recovering the debt and the debtor from making payment thereof until the further order of the court;
- (ii) in the case of the share, the person in whose name the share may be standing from transferring the same or receiving any dividend thereon;
- (iii) in the case of the other movable property except as aforesaid, the person in possession of the same from giving it over to the judgment debtor.

(2) A copy of such order shall be fixed on some conspicuous part of the court-house, and another copy shall be sent in the case of the debts, to the debtor, in the case of the share, to the proper officer of the corporation, and, in the case of the other movable property, except as aforesaid, to the person in possession of the same.

(3) A debtor prohibited under item (i) of subrule (1) may pay the amount of his debt into court, and such payment shall discharge him as effectually as payment to the party entitled to receive the same.

[r. 45]

Attachment of
share in movables

48. Where the property to be attached consists of the share or interest of the judgment debtor in movable property belonging to him and another as co-owner, the attachment shall be made by a notice to the judgment debtor prohibiting him from transferring the share, interest or charging it in any way.

[r. 46]

salary

49.—(1) Where the property to be attached is the salary of an employee, the court may order that the amount shall be withheld from such salary either in one payment or by monthly installments as the court may direct, and, upon notice of the order to the employer of the said employee, or in the case of a Government servant, to the paying authority, the employer or the paying authority or other person whose duty is to disburse such salary shall withhold and remit to the court the amount due under the said order, or the monthly installments.

(2) An order attaching the salary of an employee may be made by the court whether the employee or the employer or the paying authority or other person or is not within the local limits of the court's jurisdiction.

(3) Where the attachable proportion of such salary is already being withheld and remitted to a court in pursuance of a previous and unsatisfied order of attachment, the employer or, in the case of a Government servant, the paying authority shall forthwith return the subsequent order to the court issuing it with a full statement of all the particulars of the existing attachment.

(4) For purposes of this rule—“paying authority” means the Assistant Paymaster-General or such other officer as may be appointed as paying authority for any Government servant or any particular class of Government servants; “employee” includes a Government servant;

“employer” includes the Governments.

[r. 47]

Attachment
of partnership property

50.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by this rule, property belonging to a partnership shall not be attached or sold in execution of a decree other than a decree passed against the firm or against the partners in the firm as such.

(2) The court may, on the application of the holder of a decree against a partner, make an order charging the interest of such partner in the partnership property and profits with payment of the amount due under the decree, and may, by the same or a subsequent order, appoint a receiver of the share of such partner in the profits, whether already declared or accruing, and of any other money which may be coming to him in respect of the partnership, and direct accounts and inquiries and make an order for the sale of such interest or other order as might have been directed or made if a charge had been made in favour of the decree-holder by such partner, or as the circumstances of the case may require.

(3) The other partner or partners shall be at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged or, in the case of a sale being directed, to purchase the same.

(4) Every application for an order under subrule (2) shall be served on the judgment debtor and on his partners or such of them as are within Tanzania.

(5) Every application made by any partner of the judgment debtor under subrule (3) shall be served on the decree-holder and on the judgment debtor, and on such of the other partners as do not join in the application and as are within Tanzania.

(6) Service under subrule (4) or subrule (5) shall be deemed to be service on all the partners, and all orders made on such applications shall be similarly served.

[r. 48]

Execution of decree against firm

51.—(1) Where a decree has been passed against a firm, execution may be granted—

- (a) against any property of the partnership;
- (b) against any person who has appeared in his own name under rule 6 or rule 7 of Order XXIX, or who has admitted on the pleading that he is, or who has been adjudged to be, a partner; or
- (c) against any person who has been individually served as a partner with a summons and has failed to appear.

(2) Where the decree-holder claims to be entitled to cause the decree to be executed against any person other than such a person as is referred to in subrule (1), paragraphs (b) and (c), as being a partner in the firm, he may apply to the court which passed the decree for leave, and where the liability is not disputed, such court may grant such leave, or where such liability is disputed, may order that the liability of such person be tried and determined in any manner in which any issue in a suit may be tried and determined.

(3) Where the liability of any person has been tried and determined under subrule (2), the order made thereon shall have the same force and be subject to the same conditions as to appeal or otherwise as if it were a decree.

(4) Save as against any property of the partnership, a decree against a firm shall not release, render liable or otherwise affect any partner therein unless he has been served with a summons to appear and answer.

[r. 49]

[r. 50]

Attachment
of property in custody of court or public officer

53. Where the property to be attached is in the custody of any court or public officer, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such court or officer, requesting that such property and any interest or dividend becoming payable thereon may be held subject to the further orders of the court from which the notice is issued:

Provided that, where such property is in the custody of a court, any question of title or priority arising between the decree-holder and any other person, not being the judgment debtor, claiming to be interested in such property by virtue of any assignment, attachment or otherwise, shall be determined by such court.

[r. 51]

Attachment of decrees

54.—(1) Where the property to be attached is a decree, either for the payment of money or for sale in enforcement of a mortgage or charge, the attachment shall be made—

- (a) where the decree was passed by the same court, then by order of such court; or
- (b) where the decree sought to be attached was passed by another court, then by the issue to such other court of a notice by the court which passed the decree sought to be executed, requesting such other court to stay the execution of its decree unless and until—
 - (i) the court which passed the decree sought to be executed, cancels the notice; or
 - (ii) the holder of the decree sought to be executed or his judgment debtor applies to the court receiving such notice to execute its own decree.

(2) Where a court makes an order under paragraph (a) of subrule (1), or receives an application under item (ii) of paragraph (b) of the said subrule, it shall, on the application of the creditor who has attached the decree or his judgment debtor, proceed to execute the attached decree and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of the decree sought to be executed.

(3) The holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree of the nature specified in subrule (1) shall be deemed to be the representative of the holder of the attached decree and to be entitled to execute such attached decree in any manner lawful for the holder thereof.

(4) Where the property to be attached in the execution of a decree is a decree other than a decree of the nature referred to in subrule (1), the attachment shall be made by a notice by the court which passed the decree sought to be executed, to the holder of the decree sought to be attached, prohibiting him from transferring or charging the same in any way; and, where such decree has been passed by any other court, also by sending to such other court a notice to abstain from executing the decree sought to be attached until such notice is cancelled by the court from which it was sent.

(5) The holder of a decree attached under this rule shall give the court executing the decree such information and aid as may reasonably be required.

(6) On the application of the holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree, the court making an order of attachment under this rule shall give notice of such order to the judgment debtor bound by the decree attached, and no payment or adjustment of the attached decree made by the judgment debtor in contravention of such order after receipt of notice thereof, either through the court or otherwise, shall be recognised by any court so long as the attachment remains in force.

[r. 52]

Attachment
of immovable
property

55.-(1) Where the property is immovable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the judgment debtor from transferring or charging the property in any way, and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge.

(2) The order shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to such property by such means as are used locally to make public pronouncements and a copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and then upon a conspicuous part of the court-house.

[r. 53]

Removal of attachment after satisfaction of decree

56. Where-

- (a) the amount decreed with costs and all charges and expenses resulting from the attachment of any property are paid into court;
- (b) satisfaction of the decree is otherwise made through the court or certified to the court; or
- (c) the decree is set aside or reversed, the attachment shall be deemed to be withdrawn, and, in the case of immovable property, the withdrawal shall, if the judgment debtor so desires, be proclaimed at his expense, and a copy of the proclamation shall be affixed in the manner prescribed by rule 55.

[r. 54]

Order for payment of coin or currency notes to party entitled under decree

57. Where the property attached is current coin or currency notes, the court may, at any time during the continuance of the attachment, direct that such coin or notes or a part thereof sufficient to satisfy the decree be paid over to the party entitled under the decree to receive the same.

[r. 55]

Determination of attachment

58. Where any property has been attached in execution of a decree, but by reason of the decree-holder's default the court is unable to proceed further with the application for execution, it shall either dismiss the application or for any sufficient reason, adjourn the proceedings to a future date and upon the dismissal of such application the attachment shall cease.

[r. 56]

Investigation of Claims and Objections

Investigation of claims to, and objections to attachment of, attached property and postponement of sale

59.—(1) Where any claim is preferred to, or any objection is made to the attachment of, any property attached in execution of a decree on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the court shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection with the like power as regards the examination of the claimant or objector and in all other respects, as if he was a party to the suit:

Provided that, no such investigation shall be made where the court considers that the claim or objection was designedly or unnecessarily delayed.

(2) Where the property to which the claim or objection applies has been advertised for sale, the court ordering the sale may postpone it pending the investigation of the claim or objection.

[r. 57]

Evidence to be adduced by claimant

60. The claimant or objector must adduce evidence to show that at the date of the attachment he had some interest in, or was possessed of the property attached.

[r. 58]

Release of property from
attachment

61. Where upon the said investigation the court is satisfied that for the reason stated in the claim or objection such property was not, when attached, in the possession of the judgment debtor or of some person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, or that, being in the possession of the judgment debtor at such time, it was so in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the court shall make an order releasing the property, wholly or to such extent as it thinks fit, from attachment.

[r. 59]

Disallowance of claim to property attached

62. Where the court is satisfied that the property was at the time it was attached, in the possession of the judgment debtor as his own property and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust from him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, the court shall disallow the claim.

[r. 60]

Continuance of attachment subject to claim of incumbrancer

63. Where the court is satisfied that the property is subject to a mortgage or charge in favour of some person not in possession, and thinks fit to continue the attachment, it may do so, subject to such mortgage or charge.

[r.61]

Saving of suits to establish right to attached property

64. Where a claim or an objection is preferred, the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute, but, subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

[r. 62]

Sale Generally

Power to order property attached to be sold and proceeds to be paid to person entitled

65. A court executing a decree may order that any property attached by it and liable to sale, or such portion thereof as may seem necessary to satisfy the decree, shall be sold, and that the proceeds of such sale, or a sufficient portion thereof, shall be paid to the party entitled under the decree to receive the same.

[r. 63]

Sales, by whom conducted and how made

66. Save as otherwise prescribed, every sale in execution of a decree shall be conducted by an officer of the court or by such other person as the court may appoint in this behalf, and shall be made by public auction in the manner prescribed.

[r. 64]

sales by public auction

67.—(1) Where any property is ordered to be sold by public auction in execution of a decree, the court shall cause a proclamation of the intended sale to be made in the language of such court.

(2) The proclamation shall be drawn-up after notice to the decree-holder and the judgment debtor and shall state the time and place of sale, and specify as fairly and accurately as possible—

- (a) the property to be sold;
- (b) the rent, if any, payable in respect of the property;

- (c) any incumbrance to which the property is liable;
- (d) the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered;
- (e) every other thing which the court considers material for a purchaser to know in order to judge the nature and value of the property.

(3) Every application for an order for sale under this rule shall be accompanied by a statement signed and verified in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the signing and verification of pleadings and containing, so far as they are known to or can be ascertained by the person making the verification, the matters required by subrule (2) to be specified in the proclamation.

(4) For the purpose of ascertaining the matters to be specified in the proclamation, the court may summon any person whom it thinks necessary to summon and may examine him in respect to any such matters and require him to produce any document in his possession or power relating thereto.

[r. 65]

Mode of making proclamation

68.—(1) Every proclamation shall be made and published, as nearly as may be, in the manner prescribed by rule 55, subrule (2).

(2) Where the court so directs, such proclamation shall also be published in the Gazette or in a local newspaper, or in both, and the costs of such publication shall be deemed to be costs of the sale.

(3) Where property is divided into lots for the purpose of being sold separately, it shall not be necessary to make a separate proclamation for each lot, unless property notice of the sale cannot, in the opinion of the court, otherwise be given.

[r. 66]

Time of sale

69. Save in the case of property of the kind described in rule 46, no sale hereunder shall, without the consent in writing of the judgment debtor, take place until after the expiration of at least thirty days in the case of immovable property, and of at least fifteen days in the case of movable property, calculated from the date on which the copy of the proclamation has been affixed on the court-house of the judge or magistrate ordering the sale.

[r. 67]

Adjournment or stoppage of sale

70.—(1) The court may, in its discretion, adjourn any sale hereunder to a specified day and hour, and the officer conducting any such sale may, in his discretion, adjourn the sale, recording his reason for such adjournment:

Provided that, where the sale is made in, or within the precincts of the court-house, no such adjournment shall be made without the leave of the court.

(2) Where a sale is adjourned under subrule (1) for a longer period than seven days, a fresh proclamation under rule 68 shall be made, unless the judgment debtor consents to waive it.

(3) Every sale shall be stopped if, before the lot is knocked down, the debt and costs, including the costs of the sale, are rendered to the officer conducting the sale, or proof is given to his satisfaction that the amount of such debt and costs have been paid into the court which ordered the sale.

[r. 68]

Defaulting purchaser answerable for loss on re-sale

71. Any deficiency of price which may happen on a re-sale by reason of the purchaser's default, and all expenses attending such re-sale, shall be certified to the court by the officer or other person holding the sale and shall, at the instance of either the decree-holder or the judgment debtor, be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser under the provisions relating to the execution of a decree for the payment of money.

[r. 69]

Decree-holder not to bid for or buy property without permission

72.—(1) A holder of a decree in execution of which property is sold shall not without the express permission of the court, bid for or purchase the property.

(2) Where a decree-holder purchases with such permission, the purchase money and the amount due on the decree may, subject to the provisions of section 60, be set-off against one another, and the court executing the decree shall enter up satisfaction of the decree in whole or in part accordingly.

(3) Where a decree-holder purchases, by himself or through another person, without such permission, the court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the judgment debtor or any other person whose interests are affected by the sale, by order set aside the sale; and the costs of such application and order, and any deficiency of price which may happen on the re-sale and all expenses attending it, shall be paid by the decree-holder.

[r. 70]

Restriction on bidding or purchase by officer

73. An officer or other person having any duty to perform in connection with any sale shall not, either directly or indirectly, bid for, acquire or attempt to acquire any interest in the property sold.

[r. 71]

Sale of Movable Property

Sale of agricultural produce

74.-(1) Where the property to be sold is agricultural produce, the sale shall, save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, be held-

- (a) where such produce is a growing crop, on or near the land on which such crop has grown; or
- (b) where such produce has been cut or gathered, at or near the place in which it is deposited:

Provided that, the court may direct the sale to be held at the nearest place of public resort, if it is of opinion that the produce is thereby likely to sell to greater advantage.

- (2) Where, on the produce being put up for sale-
 - (a) a fair price, in the estimation of the person holding the sale, is not offered for it; and
 - (b) the owner of the produce or a person authorised to act in his behalf applies to have the sale postponed till the next day or, if a market is held at the place of sale, the next market-day, the sale shall be postponed accordingly and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the produce.

[r. 72]

Special provisions relating to growing crops

75.—(1) Where the property to be sold is a growing crop and the crop from its nature admits of being stored but has not yet been stored, the day of the sale shall be so fixed as to admit of its being made ready for storing before the arrival of such day, and the sale shall not be held until the crop has been cut or gathered and is ready for storing.

(2) Where the crop from its nature does not admit of being stored, it may be sold before it is cut and gathered and the purchaser shall be entitled to enter on the land and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting or gathering it.

[r. 73]

Negotiable instruments and shares in corporations

76. Where the property to be sold is a negotiable instrument or a share in a corporation the court may, instead of directing the sale to be made by public auction, authorise the sale of such instrument or share through a broker.

[r. 74]

Sale by public auction

77.—(1) Where movable property is sold by public auction, the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer or other person holding the sale directs, and in default of payment, the property shall forthwith be re-sold.

(2) On payment of the purchase money, the officer or other person holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same and the sale shall become absolute.

(3) Where the movable property to be sold is a share in goods belonging to the judgment debtor and a co-owner, and two or more persons, of whom one is such co-owner, respectively, bid the same sum for such property or for any lot, the bidding shall be deemed to be the bidding of the co-owner.

[r. 75]

Irregularity not to vitiate sale, but any person injured may sue

78. No irregularity in publishing or conducting the sale of movable property shall vitiate the sale, but any person sustaining any injury by reason of such irregularity at the hand of any other person may institute a suit against him for compensation or, if such other person is the purchaser, for the recovery of the specific property and for compensation in default of such recovery.

[r. 76]

Delivery of movable property, debts and shares

79.—(1) Where the property sold is movable property of which actual seizure has been made, it shall be delivered to the purchaser.

(2) Where the property sold is movable property in the possession of some person other than the judgment debtor, the delivery thereof to the purchaser shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any person except the purchaser.

(2) Where a minor has a guardian appointed or declared by a competent authority, no person other than such guardian shall act as the next friend of the minor or be appointed his guardian for the suit unless the court considers, for reasons to be recorded, that it is for the minor's welfare that another person be permitted to act or be appointed.

(3) A person shall not without his consent be appointed guardian for the suit.

(4) Where there is no other person fit and willing to act as guardian for the suit, the court may appoint any of its officers to be such guardian and may direct that the costs to be incurred by such officer in the performance of his duties as such guardian shall be borne either by the parties or by any one or more of the parties to the suit, or out of any fund in court in which the minor is interested, and may give directions for the repayment or allowance of such costs as justice and the circumstances of the case may require.

Agreement or compromise by next friend or guardian for suit

7.-(1) A next friend or guardian for the suit shall not, without the leave of the court expressly recorded in the proceedings, enter into any agreement or compromise on behalf of a minor with reference to the suit in which he acts as next friend or guardian.

Removal of next friend

9.-(1) Where the interest of the next friend of a minor is adverse to that of the minor or where he is so connected with a defendant whose interest is adverse to that of the minor as to make it unlikely that the minor's interest will be properly protected by him, or where he does not do his duty, or during the pendency of the suit, ceases to reside within Tanzania or for any other sufficient cause, application may be made on behalf of the minor or by a defendant for his removal, and the court, if satisfied of the sufficiency of the cause assigned, may order the next friend to be removed accordingly and make such other order as to costs as it thinks fit.

(2) Where the next friend is not a guardian appointed or declared by an authority competent in this behalf and an application is made by a guardian so appointed or declared, who desires to be himself appointed in the place of the next friend, the court shall remove the next friend unless it considers, for reasons to be recorded by it, that the guardian ought not to be appointed the next friend of the minor, and shall thereupon appoint the applicant to be next friend in his place upon such terms as to the costs already incurred in the suit as it thinks fit.

Stay of proceedings on removal, etc., of next friend

10.—(1) On the retirement, removal or death of the next friend of a minor, further proceedings shall be stayed until the appointment of a next friend in his place.

Retirement, removal or death of guardian for suit

11.—(1) Where the guardian for the suit desires to retire or does not do his duty, or for any other sufficient cause, the court may permit such guardian to retire or may remove him, and may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.

followed by minor plaintiff or applicant on attaining majority

(2) Where he elects to proceed with the suit or application, he shall apply for an order discharging the next friend and for leave to proceed in his own name.

(3) The title of the suit or application shall in such case be corrected so as to read henceforth thus—

“A.B., late a minor, by C.D., his next friend, but now having attained majority”.

(4) Where he elects to abandon the suit or application he shall, if a sole plaintiff or sole applicant, apply for an order to dismiss the suit or application on repayment of the costs incurred by the defendant or opposite party or which may have been paid by his next friend.

(5) An application under this rule may be made ex parte, but no order discharging a next friend and permitting a minor plaintiff to proceed in his own name shall be made without notice to the next friend.

Where minor co-plaintiff attaining majority desires to repudiate suit

13.—(1) Where a minor co-plaintiff on attaining majority desires to repudiate the suit, he shall apply to have his name struck out as co-plaintiff, and the court, if it finds that he is not a necessary party, shall dismiss him from the suit on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

(2) Notice of the application shall be served on the friend, on any co-plaintiff and on the defendant.

Dismissal of appeal where notice not served in consequence of appellant's failure to deposit costs 18. Where on the day fixed, or on any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, it is found that the notice to the respondent has not been served in consequence of the failure of the appellant to deposit, within the period fixed, the sum required to defray the cost of serving the notice, the Court may make an order that the appeal be dismissed:

Provided that, no such order shall be made although the notice has not been served upon the respondent, if on any such day the respondent appears when the appeal is called on for hearing.

Power to adjourn hearing and direct persons appearing interested to be made respondents

21. Where an appeal is heard ex parte and judgment is pronounced against the respondent, he may apply to the Court to re-hear the appeal, and, if he satisfies the Court that the notice was not duly served or that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Court shall re-hear the appeal on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit to impose upon him.

Upon hearing, respondent may object to decree as if he had preferred separate appeal

22.—(1) A respondent, though he may not have appealed from any part of the decree, may not only support the decree on any of the grounds decided against him in the court below, but take any cross-objection to the decree which he could have taken by way of appeal, provided he has filed such objection in the Court within one month from the date of service on him or his advocate of notice of the day fixed for hearing the appeal, or within such further time as the Court may see fit to allow.

(2) The cross-objection shall be in the form of a memorandum and the provisions of rule 1, so far as they relate to the form and contents of the memorandum of appeal, shall apply thereto.

issues and refer them for trial
